| 1 Today is the feast day of St. Basil, who helped develop our theology of the Trinity and our practices of care for the poor. May the Spirit who inspired St. Basil inspire us. | 2 Pray for our staff to begin the new year of 2022 with a fresh start and perspective! | 3 Pray for Esdrienne (WMF Brazil) – her birthday is today! Pray that you provide her with joy, strength, and growth this year. | 4 The External Care Network provides WMF staff with mental health coaching and spiritual direction. Pray for continued partnerships and increase of gifted people who are able to serve our staff in this way. | 5 As the WMFSL community enjoys their annual staff retreat this week, please pray that participants would experience the wonder and love of Jesus afresh, and be inspired to walk in his ways of love, righteousness, and peace. | 6 On this celebration of Epiphany, may the Lord open our eyes to see him and worship him, even in unexpected places. | 7 Pray for our interns that are continuing to raise funds to travel abroad in the coming months to work with our fields around the world. |
| 8 Emma Crocker flies back to Sierra Leone next week after a time of rest at home in Canada. Pray for safe and smooth travels back to Freetown. | 9 Pray for the students that we work with as they return to school after the holiday break. | 10 Today we celebrate Jesus's Baptism in the Christian calendar. Pray that this sinks into our hearts and minds today. | 11 Today is Tad Gilbert's birthday! We are thankful for his work in WMF Malawi. Pray for this day that he feels seen and loved by us. | 12 Pray over the women that WMF Bolivia works with today and that Jesus would continue to shape their hearts to know Him more. | 13 Pray over all the fields who are dealing with finances and budgeting this January and that the Lord would grant peace and wisdom. | 14 Join us in prayer for our Burundi community in their work towards reconciliation and restoration. |
| 15 Krystal Born is flying to Moldova tomorrow and beginning her time of service with our community in Moldova. Pray for her and cultural adaptation. | 16 Remembering MLK, we pray for conviction and practices that lead to anti-racism, justice, and restitution. | 17 Pray over the children we connect with in WMF Chennai and that the Lord would grant them fresh spirits this year. | 18 Join in this International Week of Prayer for Christian Unity that the world would know Jesus through our love for one another. | 19 Today is our Africa and Europe Regional Coordinator's birthday. Pray that Cami would be filled with new inspiration, hope and joy. | 20 Pray for new hires that our fields and international office are looking to add to our team! | 21 Please pray for wisdom and direction for Immaculee and Shelbye as they discern the future of WMF Rwanda. The Kangando slum they have been serving in will soon be torn down. |
| 22 Please pray for the Circle of Hope orphan prevention program in Malawi, that it would empower vulnerable families, and keep parents and children together. | 23 Pray over the work and home life balance for our staff members in WMF Moldova. | 24 Pray for the Grimms (WMF PNG) as they work to rebuild and support the community near them that got destroyed and burned down. | 25 Today is our Community Care Director's birthday, Kristen! Pray for her and that the Lord encourages her heart this year! | 26 Please pray for continued health and strength for Flavia, serving in Romania, who recently had COVID. | 27 Pray for Cara Contreras (Bolivia), as she returns to Word Made Flesh Bolivia from her Sabbatical. Pray for all she grew in and learned during her time away. | 28 Pray for our students preparing to travel to WMF Navajo in March as they continue to fundraise. |
| 29 Pray for the Gliberts as they end their time in WMF Malawi. | 30 Please pray for a new Residential Manager for the Gubwaneza Center for WMF Burundi. | 31 Pray for the individuals that WMF Peru will come into contact in the next month and that they would come to know Jesus. | | | |  |
